HOW TO ORDER

- ▶ Select your book or books according to type size and to binding.
- ▶ Use the catalog numbers in ordering, specifying how many books of each.
- ▶ Sales are for cash. Prices do not include transportation.
- ▶ A remittance including transportation costs should accompany all orders.
- ▶ To determine transportation costs, the weight of each book is given after its price. Total the weight of your order, and include transportation costs at prevailing postage rates (1½ cents per pound until June 30, 1942).
- ▶ If you desire, you may direct that your order be forwarded C.O.D.
- ▶ The Society reserves the right to decide how your order will be forwarded. Packages up to 70 pounds will normally be sent by book post or express, whichever may be the cheapest. Packages of 70 pounds or over may be sent by freight to the nearest freight station, if the minimum freight charge is less than book post or express. In zones 1 and 2 book express rates are often less than book post. In these cases we ship express and refund the difference.

- ▶ Please be advised that the Society does not publish Scriptures with notes or with teachers' helps; nor does it publish emphasized, red-letter editions or the more recent modern versions in English.

The Bible in whole or in part has been translated into 1,051 different languages and dialects, about 500 of which are in current use.

Through its world-wide contacts, the American Bible Society can secure Scriptures in practically every language in which they are being published, although a complete stock of all languages is not carried at the Bible House.
